Team All Bands Together for the Annual Revlon Run/Walk

In May, employees from American International Industries joined the 17th-annual Revlon Run/Walk event, which raises awareness and funds that are crucial to the fight against women's cancers. It was held at the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum at Exposition Park. Team All was made up of coworkers from many different departments in the company, including purchasing, marketing, education, sales, inventory, public relations, and advertising. To date, Team All has raised nearly $4,000.

BeautyTech.com Offers Free Salon Locator Listing

Want to expose your salon or spa to thousands of consumers every month at no cost? Log on to www.beautytech.info/locator/submit.php and create a listing for your business. "Not only does the site help consumers find a professional salon or spa near them, it educates them about what to expect from a professional environment, clarifies controversies they may have heard about in their local media, provides information they want to know — such as how much to tip — and debunks myths about beauty care," says webmaster Debbie Doerrlamm. The site also provides full contact information for each state board, as well as information on safety and sanitation.
